Mrs. H. Chapman
Dear Friend
I did not hear of your sad misfortune untill this morning. Have missed your calls at the office
. Thought you were away from the City. I feel sorry for you for I know how inconvenient it
is to be confined in the House with those things. I hope you will soon be able to Go out as usual. I Cannot help but feel that one [illegible] Truly Sympathize with any nice little treats with Mr Fortune of the Kind you have undergone.

There is some vile
persons in this world like one who came in the Store this morning who said he wished your head been Killed I Simply told him
he ought to be ashamed of himself. Hope you will soon be able to enjoy going out
as usual

Your Friend
